SARASOTA COUNTY COUNCIL OF NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATIONS, INC.'S
NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF

SARASOTA COUNTY COUNCIL OF NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATIONS, INC. ("CONA"), pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.370(d), hereby gives notice of its intent to seek leave of Court to file an amicus curiae brief on the merits should the Court accept jurisdiction in this matter.

CONA is a not-for-profit organization located in Sarasota County, Florida. Formed in 1961, CONA is a coalition of over seventy (70) neighborhoods and condominium and homeowners associations located throughout Sarasota County. One of CONA's primary purposes is to take an active role in local government and work to protect its members' property and neighborhoods from incompatible development. In that role, CONA frequently appears at local quasi-judicial hearings on behalf of its members whose interests will be directly and adversely affected by proposed zoning or land use actions. CONA has an interest in this matter because of the substantial adverse impact the Fifth District Court of Appeal's decision has on the procedural due process rights that must be afforded to affected third parties during quasi-judicial land use hearings, including the right to cross-examine adverse witnesses.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 15th day of November 2010.
