AMERICAN PLANNING ASSOCIATION, FLORIDA
CHAPTER'S NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF

The AMERICAN PLANNING ASSOCIATION, FLORIDA CHAPTER (“APA-Florida”), pursuant to Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.370(d), hereby gives notice of its intent to seek leave of Court to file an amicus curiae brief on the merits should the Court accept jurisdiction in this matter.

APA-Florida is a state-wide, not-for-profit interest and research organization founded in 1978 to advance the art and science of land use planning at the local, regional, state, and national levels. APA-Florida represents approximately 3,000 professional planners, planning officials, and citizen planners involved in urban and rural planning activities in their communities. APA-Florida has a particular interest in advocating for the rights of affected parties to participate fully and meaningfully in the local quasi-judicial process, including the right to cross-examine adverse witnesses, so as to contribute to effective decision making and so as to preserve its due process rights and rights for standing on judicial appeal. APA-Florida has a special interest in this case because of the substantial adverse impact the Fifth District Court of Appeal's decision will have on the ability of affected parties to participate fully and meaningfully in local quasi-judicial land use hearings.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED on this 8th day of November, 2010.
